O-HI-O

President Harding's Inaugural Version

Written by AL JOLSON

(VERSE)

We knew he would win;
And now that he's in
Let's remind him
We're behind him
Through thick and thin.
Stick to him and help him along
Harding can't go wrong.

(CHORUS)

He comes from O-hi-o;
And we're all proud of him because we know
That he's a fighter and he'll fight on the square;
He's honest and fair,
And just the man we need in the President's chair
And he's from O-hi-o.
Wait till you see this country in a year or so.
With things that don't concern him he'll never fuss;
At last we've got a man who'll look after "U.S."
We want the world to know
We're all behind the Man from O-hi-o.

Marcia

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked f (forte). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano part features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second system, with lyrics: "Girl - ies, slim and She's just right for". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm, marked fz (forzando) and mf (mezzo-forte). The vocal melody continues with lyrics: "tall, me, Girl - ies, plump and small, Ver - y wild ones, Great on cook - ing,". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm. The vocal melody concludes with lyrics: "Rath - er mild ones - I've had them all; From now on with Not bad look - ing, You would a - gree; Since I met her". The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord.

get to know them, you'd be sur-prised! They've got that O, My! O! — Just wait till chick-en when it's fresh from the farm — With lots of O, My! O! —

I get back to O - hi - O! Down by the O! —

CHORUS NO. 1

Down by the O-hi-o
I've got the sweetest little—O, My! O!
I'm going right back there to meet her, and then—
Just picture me when
I put my arms around her and kiss her again
Down by the O-hi-o;
She's just a simple little country girl I know.
She loves the flowers and the bees and the birds;
She isn't naughty—but she knows all the words!
And she can—O, My! O!
Just wait till I get back to O-hi-o.

CHORUS NO. 2

Down by the O-hi-o
I've got the sweetest little—O, My! O!
She wears a gingham gown and shoes that are flat,
An old fashioned hat,
But I know lots of wild ones that started like that
And they're from O-hi-o!
I know a couple who are in a Broadway show.
You know a country girl is just like a Ford:
She's not so stylish but for service—O, Lord!
She's got that—O, My! O!
Just wait till I get back to O-hi-o.

CHORUS NO. 3

Down by the O-hi-o
I've got the sweetest little—O, My! O!
She doesn't dress as up-to-date as she might
Her clothes are a sight,
But when she's in the moonlight—I'll say she's all right!
How she can—O, My! O!
I used to think that country girls were very slow.
Until I met her she had never been kissed;
Those other guys will never know what they've missed,
Cause she can—O, My! O!
Just wait till I get back to O-hi-o.

CHORUS NO. 4

Down by the O-hi-o
I've got the sweetest little—O, My! O!
To love a city girl means heavy expense,
The country's immense,
You can get an evening's pleasure for seventy cents
Down by the O-hi-o
A dish of ice cream and a ten cent picture show.
Why we have more fun in an old one horse shay
Than city fellers in a Packard coupe.
Oh, how we—O, My! O!
Just wait till I get back to O-hi-o.
